5. Program

Walter Coleman introduced. 29 years of NFL ref Started with everyone to boo. Too many people focus on the negative. How do you turn boos into cheers?

1. Remember we are all important and what we do can make a difference. There is always going to be some negative. Some people never get to touch the ball the line never gets to touch the football. They only get name called when they make a mistake.
2. We can't lose our sense of humor. We must learn to laugh. Shared the letters he has gotten over the years.
3. Just do what's right. Take all our training, all our education, and do what's right.

"It's not the critic that counts. It belongs to the man who's in the arena". Roosevelt quote
